

Trail formation

We want to simulate the trajectories chosen while walking on a grass meadow.

- How trajectories form?
- What happens if there is no trail yet?
- What happens when two trails cross?
- What happens if we add a destination without tracks to that destination?
- Which track is going to disappear?
- How does morphology influence the final network?

